OUR CHURCHES.

Personal and Denominational.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The Rev. R. Noyes Avery, Superintendent of the Western Pennsylvania House of Refuge, preached in Trinity Church, on Sunday evening last, to a large and attentive congregation. Although but a short time in the ministry, Mr. Avery gives promise of soon ranking among the most eminent and eloquent divines of our circuit. The fine choir of this church being at Trinity Church, Cleveland, on Sunday last, the choral service was necessarily omitted, but will be resumed to-morrow, and will be continued without intermission during the winter. The services to-morrow are at 10½ A. M. and 7 P. M., the Rector, Rev. John Scarborough, preaching on both occasions. In the evening there will be two fine anthems.

THE Noon-day Prayer Meeting yesterday, in the lecture room of the First Methodist Church, on Fifth street, was one of the largest and most impressive meetings ever held in the city. The exercises were conducted by Mr. D. L. Moody, of Chicago, President of the Young Men's Christian Association, of that city. The expressions in prayer, exhortation and praise were tearful and solemn, such as bore messages to every soul in the room. There was an invitation given for anxious persons who desired the prayers of Christians to rise, and one after another in the crowded assembly stood up as penitents, more than a score within a minute or two, asking the way to the Savior. A large number of requests for prayer from outside parties were read, and several special cases presented and prayed from among the audience. Two or three individuals were present, having been brought in by the hand by Christian young men from the drinking saloons of the city, and were made to feel that there are sympathies and helps for them in the Church. During the exercises messengers for Jesus were going out to visit the streets and saloons on special personal invitations to sinners to come to the meeting and to Christ. Truly the spirit of the Gospel is abroad in the city, and the indications are that the coming winter will bring such seasons of revival as the churches have seldom enjoyed. The peculiarly favorable impressions now being made are in part the result of the Christian Convention just closed and held in the First Presbyterian Church, at the call of the different pastors of the city, and presided over by the Young Men's Christian Association.

THE walls of sectarianism have had a shattering during the past week by the powers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, that have been at work in this city. Bound about, there shall be new life and influences in the churches of a common Christianity. Ministers forgot their peculiar doctrines to take the hands of their brethren of other denominations, and to look into each other's faces, seeing eye to eye through tears of joy and in blessed recognition. The waste of perishing souls and the means to reach them with the glad tidings of salvation were the moving impulses of all the exercises of the Convention and on Anniversary night. Money has been already raised to employ two unsectarianized city missionaries to visit and preach through the more destitute districts and to organize Sabbath schools and churches into such forms as Providence may direct.

These things may seem marvelous to cold-hearted and conservative Christians, but the Holy Ghost is ready to criticise any unusual or special attempts to lead the people to labor for the salvation of souls, or otherwise to become acquainted with the Savior of sinners. But now that the churches are moving together, and ministers and laymen are willing to co-operate in the great work, we hope to see better days in Pittsburgh. It is no time for a millennium for any professed disciple of Jesus Christ to obstruct or in any way to discredit the measures adopted by pastors and people to reach the masses who have so long waited and suffered for the bread of life in the fastidious respectability of a religion that never dared to be aggressive.

THE Sabbath School of the First Methodist Church of Allegheny, under the supervision of J. H. Claney Esq., is at present in a very prosperous condition, with some indications of a revival among the young. The pastor, Rev. Y. Lucas, is a thorough Sunday School worker himself, and where such union of effort and sympathy exist, success always be-comes. On Wednesday evening the pastor took the second topic of the Course of Lectures on Congregationalism, and discussed it to the great edification of his membership. Why should not these points be thus improved in all our churches?

THE lecture of Rev. W. H. Phipps, of Allegheny, at the Church of God, on Townsend street, last evening, on "Popular Babbles," was an unusually interesting entertainment. Mr. Phipps is an original thinker, and makes sharp points in a very unique manner as he goes through a lecture. The various deceptions and "humbugs" of the age were shown up as the very bubbles they are, and the lecturer left an impression upon the minds of all that will make them more thoughtful and observant henceforth. The production were quite a compliment to the church where the lecture was delivered.

THE Sunday School Convention held in Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, is largely attended, and highly appreciated by all the Sunday-school officers and teachers throughout the city. It is hoped that the plans discussed, and the improvements in the government and instruction of Sabbath schools suggested by the eminent lecturers of the convention, will be adopted by the various Superintendents of our various schools in the city and vicinity.

THE fifth sermon of series of evening discourses in the First Methodist Church, on "Sacred Themes in Nature's Elements" will be delivered to-morrow evening by the pastor. Special subject, The Rainbow. The pews are free, and all are welcome. It is extended to all. Strangers will find ushers to show them comfortable seats.

REVIVAL.—Quite a revival interest is manifested in the Beaver street Methodist Episcopal Church, Allegheny, Rev. Mr. Baker, pastor. The evening meetings are becoming large and very attentive, and the inquirers have been numerous from the beginning of the exercises. This church is one of the most zealous and efficient in the city, and its influence will be felt by ungodly men.

THE Rev. G. W. Burns, A. M., is the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist Churches in Wellsville and East Liverpool, Ohio. He preaches at Wellsville every sabbath at 10:30 A. M., and at East Liverpool every Sabbath evening. His congregations are increasing in numbers and interest, and the prospects are favorable for a successful pastorate and the accomplishment of much good. Mr. Burns is a preacher of energy and ability, and is well received by the people.

THERE will be a Convention of ai sciools and divisions of Presbyterians, held in Philadelphia, in November, for the purpose of discussing the basis of organic union into one body. The distinguished layman, George H. Stuart, Esq., is one of the leaders in the movement.

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Preliminary Meeting--Sixteen Hundred Dollars Subscribed by Ladies--Promise of the Enterprise.

The ladies of this city met, as requested, in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, on Fifth street, at nine o'clock on Friday morning.

After earnest, practical addresses by Messrs. Moody, of Chicago; McIntyre, of St. Louis; and Bardwell, of Milwaukee, it was unanimously resolved to organize a "Women's Christian Association" for this city and Allegheny.

The sum of sixteen hundred and forty dollars was subscribed without delay, as a beginning for this noble and enterprising object.

A committee for the nomination of officers of the Association was appointed, and consists of Mrs. Felix R. Brunot, Mrs. Ann Thaw, Mrs. W. W. Moorhead, Mrs. Passavant, Mrs. James S. Dickerson, Mrs. Frank Woods and Miss Mary Beaty. This committee will report at a public meeting of the ladies of this city and Allegheny, to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, on Fourth street, above Grant, on next Friday, November 1st, at three o'clock P. M. All interested in the subject of Women's Christian work, are urged to be present.

The Mansion House Tragedy---Continuation of the Inquest.

The Coroner's jury in the case of James A. Monahan, who died on Tuesday morning last, at the Mansion House, from the effects of injuries sustained (as is alleged) in consequence of a difficulty with Lawrence Purcell, met at the Mayor's office yesterday at seven o'clock. Coroner Clawson had summoned a large number of witnesses, in hopes of being able to throw some additional light on the circumstances connected with the case. But few fifty-five witnesses were examined, but the great majority of them knew little or nothing about the difficulty. We give a condensation of the testimony:

Harry Buchanan knew nothing about the affair. John C. Clark hoped to carry Monahan up stairs after the fight. John Hall saw Monahan on the floor; he was perfectly sober; had gone with him to Pennsylvania for the purpose of bidding on a piece of property but the sale was postponed.

ANNIE PURCELL'S STATEMENT

Annie Purcell, sworn—Ann a niece of Mr. Purcell; board at the Mansion House; saw uncle at half-past eleven; went to his room when he went to bed; I locked the door on the outside and kept the key in my pocket; I opened his door next morning, at six o'clock, and found him washing himself; John C. Clark's daughter was with me at the time I looked; I locked the door; she threw me the key; my uncle never had but the one key, and that one I had that night; the reason I locked the door was because Mr. Monahan had abused him before and called at him to come out to fight; I thought he might get over it enough to get up that night, and provoke uncle to fight; I had locked him in several times before; Monahan was in good humor with uncle until one or two years ago; since then Monahan has tried to ruin my character and to ruin uncle's business.

OTHER TESTIMONY.

C. McGowin testified to having gone with Monahan on Monday afternoon, at Alderman Taylor's office, where he (Monahan) with drew a suit against Purcell for having threatened to shoot him. Miss Mollie Morgan, Miss Hannah Morgan, John McCabe, Miss Emma Stager testified that they had not seen the difficulty, and knew nothing material about the case. Miss Brown knew nothing about the difficulty, but next morning, when she made a remark about Monahan being drunk, Annie Purcell said "the d—d drunken brute, that's nothing more than he deserves to look like." Miss Dougherty also heard this remark. Miss Hannah Morgan, Maggie Bridget Hilton, Martha Armstrong, and John H. Clark knew nothing about the difficulty.

BERRY REITERATES HIS STATEMENT.

Mr. Berry, the watchman, was recalled, and stated that after Monahan and Annie Purcell had quarreled, he heard Purcell say "if Monahan does not let me alone, by ——— I'll kill him." This witness reiterated, in the most positive manner, his previous statement that he saw Purcell going into his room about two o'clock Tuesday morning. This does not comport with Annie Purcell's statement, that looking into uncle in his own room, and keeping the key all night.

Alfred Sandrett, the night clerk, last saw Purcell between eleven and twelve o'clock on Monday night.

James Keegan, Isaac Taun, and Henry Wagner were examined, but neither of them had seen the difficulty. Bernard Hafner, the barkeeper, testified that Purcell did not threaten to kill Monahan, but that Purcell did say he'd kill him if he did not let him alone.

ANOTHER ADJOURNMENT.

The testimony closed here, and the jury, after some discussion, adjourned to meet again to-day at twelve o'clock. They are still divided in sentiment as to the kind of verdict which they should render. Some of the jurors believe that the fall on the floor caused the man's death, while others, relying upon the testimony of Drs. Dickson and Hamilton, that the fatal blow was inflicted on the forehead, are in favor of finding that the deceased came to his death from the effects of a blow received at the hand of Lawrence Purcell, unknown. It is probable that two or three psychological will be summoned to-day and examined as to the point in dispute, whether a fall upon the floor would produce the discoloration and disorganization of the brain tissue in front, as described by the physicians who made the post mortem. Drs. Dickson and Hamilton will also be re-examined.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER APPOINTED.—Judge McCandless, in the United States Court, yesterday, appointed Mr. H. D. Gamble, a United States Commissioner for the Western District of Pennsylvania. Mr. Gamble has been for some time Deputy Clerk in the United States Circuit Court, and is well qualified for the office.

A Dangerous Counterfeit.

BOGUS $50 COMPOUND NOTE.

Official Report from Alaska.

Proposed Suspension of Superintendent Clarke.

Internal Revenue Receipts Increasing.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 25, 1867.

Dangerous Counterfeit.

Counterfeits of fifty dollar Compound Interest Notes, issued under the act of February, 1862, have lately made their appearance for the second time, and have been redeemed by the Treasury Department. The counterfeits are a very good imitation of the genuine, and are calculated to deceive the unsuspecting, unless submitted to close inspection. The general appearance of the note is good, but upon a careful examination it can be discovered that the lathe work is inferior. About fifteen or eighteen months ago the counterfeit was discovered before many were circulated. None were redeemed at the Treasury at that time. On Wednesday last three were discovered in the Register's office and to-day two more, they having passed through the redemption division, First Auditor's office and First Comptroller's office without being detected; but upon reaching the regular office where all money redeemed is checked off, the spurious notes were detected. Up to this time but five have been discovered, and of course the employees in the other divisions will now make a rough examination before redeeming a note. No blame can be attached to the clerks of the Treasury for the spurious note is astonishing and well calculated to deceive at first sight. Col. Wood will take the matter in hand with his corps of detectives. It is believed that but few of the notes are yet in circulation. About a year ago a very dangerous counterfeit was discovered on the fifty dollar legal tender note, issued under the act of March 3d, 1863, new series. It was one of the best counterfeits ever put out, being a perfect imitation of the genuine, except as to the buttons on the coat of Hamilton (vignette), which are very dark in the genuine. The figure "50" on either end of the counterfeit referred to were enclosed with a circle, not in the genuine. The enclosure was octonagal in shape. Fortunately these counterfeits were discovered before many were circulated, and several arrests made, which frightened off the counterfeiters. Some of these were redeemed at the Treasury Department.

From Alaska.

The Treasury Department has received dispatches from the steamer Lincoln, sent to the waters of the new territory of Alaska. Leaving San Francisco on July 20, she proceeded by way of Victoria and Fort Rupert, Vancouvres Island, to Fort Simpson. Three attempts were made to take observations, to fix accurately the boundary between British Columbia and our new territory, which were, however, unsuccessful, on account of rain and fog, though six days were consumed in the trial. Thence the vessel proceeded to Sitka by way of Chatham Sound and Dixon's passage, arriving on the morning of August 12th, still surrounded by a fog, which quite hid the town, the locality of which could not be made out. Soon after the mist lifted sufficiently to enable the steamer to reach the town, where her officers met a cordial welcome from the Russian officials. The latter exhibited every disposition to forward the objects of the cruise, and immediate preparations were made to proceed with it, going first to Alaska Island. At the date of the report, it was expected to set sail on the 23d of August. Little had been learned in the short time that had elapsed since their arrival in those waters, but the officers express themselves satisfied that the resources of the country in timber and fisheries have not been over-rated. The Lincoln is a revenue cutter, commanded by Capt. W. A. Howard, and had on board a surveying party of the Coast Survey, who go out to make a general reconnoissance of the coast, and fix positions for lighthouses, &c.

Superintendent Clarke.

A slanderous attempt seems to be made to make it appear that the Retrenchment Committee have not decided to virtually ask the suspension of Superintendent Clarke of the Printing Bureau of the Treasury Department, pending their investigations. They have not asked that he be removed or suspended from office, but the Committee think it best to proceed with their work without first having any of his explanations or his assistance.

The Maryland Matter.

The Maryland Investigating Committee will hear witnesses up to Monday, and then adjourn until the 13th of November, when the full Judiciary Committee meets. But one witness was examined to-day.

Revenue Receipts.

The internal revenue receipts are beginning to show some increase, and to-day touched nearly half a million, but this is far below the estimate.

WASHINGTON, October 25.

A TREATY MADE WITH THE INDIANS.

The following dispatch was received at the Interior Department:

MEDICINE CREEK LODGE, October 21.—A treaty of peace has been made with the Camanches and the Kiowas, and the prospect is good of making a treaty with the Cheyennes, Arapahoes and Apaches.

[Signed] A. S. H. WHITE.

NEW JERSEY WAR CLAIMS.

Gov. Ward, of New Jersey, was to-day engaged at the War Department on business for the State, which has chaims against the Government on account of moneys advanced and expended for military purposes during the late war.

RESERVE OF PHILADELPHIA BANKS.

The return of the Philadelphia banks to the Comptroller of the Currency shows they have a reserve of $19,000,000, being $6,000,000 in excess of the amount required by law.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The correspondence between Admiral Farragut and Minister Yeaman, at Copenhagen, is received. The former thanks the latter for his attentions, and the latter congratulates the Government and people of the United States for the very favorable impression which has been made in Northern Europe by Farragut's cruise in the Baltic and adjacent waters. Our naval science has been illustrated, our political institutions lauded, and a high appreciation of Americans have acquired increased consideration.

ALASKA.

Advices from the steamer Lincoln, sent by the Treasury Department from San Francisco to Alaska, report her at Sitka, to sail August 23d, for Ovalaska. Little had been learned in the short time that had elapsed since their arrival in those waters, but the officers expressed themselves already satisfied, that the resources of the country in timber and fisheries had not been overrated.

SINGULAR CASE.

Several weeks ago Secretary McCulloch received from an anonymous source a package postmarked Urbana, Ohio, containing $19,000, the larger portion of which was in 7-30 bonds. The money was placed to the credit of the Treasury. Recently a letter was received from a man in Wisconsin, claiming that he sent money to be converted into other securities, such as the Secretary might think proper to send, and gave as his basis for forwarding no communication that he was very sick at the time, and not able to write. The officers of the treasury are of opinion that the publication that $19,000 had been received, and thinks he can claim the same.

THE ORDNANCE COMMITTEE

Has decided not to hold a meeting until next Wednesday, and a letter from General Logan says he has been confined to his room by inflammation of the lungs, rendering his presence here at present impossible, but at the earliest practicable moment he may be looked for.

PLACE OF HOLDING NATIONAL UNION CONVENTIONS.

Governor Ward, who is now here, says at the recent meeting in New York of the Executive Sub-Committee of the National Union Republican Committee, there was some conversation as to the best place for holding the next convention for the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, and St. Louis, Chicago and New York were mentioned, but no action was taken by the sub-Committee, as the determination was that the question belongs to the full Committee, which is to assemble here in December.

THE TEHUANTEPEC ROUTE.

Information is received here of the issuance of a new grant by President Juarez to E. Lasere, for opening the Tehuantepec route. It is substantially the same as that issued October 15th, 1866, to Charles Knapp & Co., but which lapsed, owing, it is said, to the non-fulfillment of the contract by them.

THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY,

Charged with the investigation of public affairs in Maryland and Delaware, will adjourn on Monday next to November 13th, when the investigation will be resumed.

SUITS TO RECOVER CONFISCATED PROPERTY.

R. T. Merrick is about bringing suits before the Court here for the restoration of property sold under the confiscation act, in the name of Dr. Cornelius Boyle and Colonel H. B. Tyler, and in case of an adverse decision the cases will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Merrick brought similar suits in reference to the property of Daniel Ratcliffe, in Franklin Row, which was argued some months since, and compromised. General Caleb Cushing is also the attorney for Dr. Garnett and others.

MONROEVILLE, OHIO.

Base Ball Tornament at Norwalk.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

MONROEVILLE, O., October 25, 1867.

At the Base Ball Tournament at Norwalk to-day, the world's prize of three hundred dollars was played for. The following clubs were entered: Forest City, of Cleveland; Union, of Toledo, and Independents, of Mansfield. The Forest City and Independents played in the forenoon, resulting in the defeat of the latter by a score of thirty-two to sixteen. In the afternoon the Unions, of Toledo, and Forest City played, resulting in a victory by the Unions, by a score of thirty-nine to twenty-seven. The weather was cool and pleasant, and a large concourse of citizens and visitors was present.

CRESTLINE, OHIO.

An Aged Man Dangerously Injured.

Special Dispatch to Commercial.

CRESTLINE, OHIO, October 25, 1867.

An old and respected farmer by the name of Joseph Brown, who resides near this place, while intoxicated, about six o'clock this evening, was struck by the Pittsburgh sleeping car that was being transferred to the evening express train here, the car passing over both his legs, rendering their amputation necessary just below the knee. Owing to his old age it is thought that he cannot survive until morning.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 25, 1867.

CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Conservative Republican County Convention met last evening, but refused to put in nomination any ticket for county officers.

FROM MEXICO.

The Herald's Vera Cruz correspondence, of the 14th, says: It was Santa Anna's intention to leave Mexico for Havana about the 24th inst. Mr. Plumb, the American Charge d'Affairs, had arrived at the capital. The election of Juarez is confirmed.

NATURALIZATION.

Seven thousand five hundred naturalization have taken place recently under the auspices of the Democratic Committee, and five hundred under those of the Republican Committee.

ARSON.

Jno. McCabe was arrested to-day, charged with arson in setting fire to his premises in West Twenty-eighth street, and attempting to burn up his two young children. McCabe was intoxicated, and the children were saved by his wife, whom he struck in the trial. Thence the vessel proceeded to Sitka by way of Chatham Sound and Dixon's passage, arriving on the morning of August 12th, still surrounded by a fog, which quite hid the town, the locality of which could not be made out. Soon after the mist lifted sufficiently to enable the steamer to reach the town, where her officers met a cordial welcome from the Russian officials. The latter exhibited every disposition to forward the objects of the cruise, and immediate preparations were made to proceed with it, going first to Alaska Island. At the date of the report, it was expected to set sail on the 23d of August. Little had been learned in the short time that had elapsed since their arrival in those waters, but the officers express themselves satisfied that the resources of the country in timber and fisheries have not been over-rated. The Lincoln is a revenue cutter, commanded by Capt. W. A. Howard, and had on board a surveying party of the Coast Survey, who go out to make a general reconnoissance of the coast, and fix positions for lighthouses, &c.

EXTRADITION.

A warrant of extradition was granted in the case of Frank Sullivan, for shooting Eben Foot on the British ship Maria at sea.

THE DEAD ALIVE.

The Times Havana correspondence says: Jose Mana La Cunza, one of Maximilian's ministers who has been executed, buried and embalmed by the newspapers, is alive and well in Havana. The appointment of the new Captain General, Captain Lerezundi, gives general satisfaction.

BISHOP WHIPPLE.

Of Minnesota, preaches in Calvary Church, Sunday.

CHILDREN LOST.

A Jewish lady, named Rosenfelt, from St. Louis, lost five of her children yesterday, near Jersey City ferry. The police are yet unable to find them.

THE TAYLOR FAILURE.

The Commercial Advertiser says the failure of Robert L. Taylor, shipping merchant, is one of the results of the protracted stringency in discounts. Although the house has long stood in good credit, yet it has found it impossible to procure discounts to meet its maturing obligations. Mr. Taylor, we understand, is largely committed by the indorsement of H. W. Hubbell, shipping and commission agent, of Portland, Maine. Both parties have made assignments. The liabilities of Taylor are said to amount to about $1,000,000, including the indorsement of Hubbell's paper. Considerable real estate of Taylor having made an assignment, as his wealth is reputed to largely exceed his reported liabilities.

MAXIMILIAN'S REMAINS.

A Herald's special says the Austrian Admiral Tegethoff is still waiting the final decision on the application for the remains of Maximilian. There appears no probability of his obtaining the remains.

EXPLOSION.

An explosion occurred in the distillery of Loob Bros., on Cherry street, to-night, causing some loss of property by fire, and terrible injury to one employee.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Suicide---Democratic Ticket Elected---Navigation of Colorado River.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 22.—A. Marius Chapelle, a capitalist and real estate dealer, committed suicide on the 19th inst., by jumping from the Oakland ferryboat. He was a pioneer resident of San Francisco, and much respected.

Election returns from thirty-four counties make the success of Sprague and Fitzgerald, Democrats, certain.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 25.—The Committee on the practicability of the navigation of Colorado river, have made a favorable report. The Chamber of Commerce urge immediate action.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 25.—The United States steamer Ossipee, with General Rousseau and the Russian Commissioners, left Fort Simpson October 14th. They expected to reach Sitka on the 16th.

The Sacramento Union says it is understood arrangements have been completed by the Pacific Railroad Company to purchase the Lincoln and Marysville and Western Pacific Railroads.

SHERIDAN.

Tour Through New England.

HARTFORD, October 25.—Gen. Sheridan will spend the day here in a private manner, and leave for Boston to-morrow. Gen. Caldwell, Adjutant General of Maine, and Gen. Wells, Adjutant General of Vermont, visited Sheridan to-day and perfected arrangements with him for visiting those States. The General will remain in Boston over Sunday, leaving on Monday for Augusta and Portsmouth, passing through Lewiston, Newburyport and Portsmouth. At Augusta there will be a reception on the part of the State. The General will return to Portland Monday evening, where a grand ball will be given on behalf of the city of Portland. On Tuesday he will go to Concord, N. H., where he will be the guest of Hon. Onslow Stearns, remaining over night. On Wednesday he will proceed to Montpelier and on that day attend a reception on behalf of the State. In the evening he will attend the officers reunion of the veterans of Vermont. From Montpelier he goes to New York by way of Rutland and Troy.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 25.—The Hamburg steamship Bavaria arrived in the river to-day on the first experimental trip, looking to the establishment of a permanent line between New Orleans and Hamburg.

The Crescent states that a private letter from Corpus Christi gives the intelligence that the towns of Brazos, Santiago and Brownsville, Texas, and the city of Matamoras and the village of Bagdad, Mexico, were extensively damaged by the same storm which recently devastated Galveston. The steamer Pisavel left Brazos for this port on the 20th ult., and has not since been heard from. It is considered certain she went down with all on board.

There were seventeen yellow fever interments during the twenty-four hours ending this morning.

PAPAL ZOUAVES BLOWN UP.

Papal Zouaves Blown Up.

LONDON, October 25.—Late dispatches from Rome state that the party of action attempted an insurrection on Tuesday. A mine was placed under the barracks of the Papal Zouaves, and at a given signal it was fired. The attempt was a decided failure; not a single life being lost, though many persons were injured. The building was badly shattered. A general outbreak was quickly repressed, and the city soon became quiet.

Shipping Intelligence.

GLASGOW, October 25.—The steamship Hibernia from New York has arrived.

QUEENSTOWN, October 25.—The steamship Erin, from New York, has arrived.

Reception of Francis Joseph.

PARIS, October 25.—The reception of the Emperor of Austria in Paris was most cordial and gratifying. His visit is popular with Parisians, and whenever he appears in public he meets with an enthusiastic reception from the people. A profound feeling of sympathy for the brother of the unfortunate Maximilian heightens the respect and esteem with which the Emperor is regarded by all classes.

Not a Fenian Outrage.

LONDON, October 25.—About two weeks ago a Mr. O'Donnell was shot in this city under circumstances that led to the belief that the outrage was perpetrated by the Fenians. The police have succeeded in tracing the crime to a person named Magridge, who, when examined, acknowledged his guilt, and was found to have no connection with any Fenian organization.

The Rebellion in China.

LONDON, October 25.—Intelligence is received from China that a great battle was fought between the rebel army of invasion and the Tartar force of the Emperor of China. The Imperialists were defeated. The battle took place within thirty miles of Pekin, and that city was in great danger of falling into the hands of the rebels.

Garibaldi.

FLORENCE, October 25.—Gen. Garibaldi has been again heard from. Without regarding the prohibition of the Italian authorities, he left Faligna and pushed on towards the south. At last accounts he had arrived at Rieti, a town in the southern district of Umbria, not far from the Papal frontier, and within forty-two miles of Rome.

Accepts.

Gen. Nino Bixio has accepted a position in the new cabinet as minister of Marine.

More Fighting.

LONDON, October 25.—Additional advices from Rome acknowledge that the Garibaldians have not all retired from the territory of the church, but represent the Pontifical troops recently had encounters with the remnant of the insurgent bands, in which they have been successful.

WEST VIRGINIA.

The Election on Thursday---Returns Meagre

WHEELING, October 25.—The election in West Virginia for State Senate and Representatives transpired yesterday. The returns are meagre, and indicate a diminished vote. The Democrats have made large gains as far as heard from. Wheeling city and Ohio county give seven hundred Democratic majority. Brooke county also elects the entire Democratic ticket. It is impossible to make even an approximate estimate as to what the returns from the State will foot up. Wirt, Marshall, Wood, Berkeley and probably Harrison counties, have gone Republican.

MOBILE, October 25.—Major Henry Myers, of the firm of Voorhees & Myers, died suddenly to-day.

PROVIDENCE, October 25.—There was a trot to-day between Lucy, Lady Thorn, Dan Rice, and Brown. Lucy won three heats, Lady Thorn one. Time 2:27½, 2:23, 2:26½, 2:25½.

MEMPHIS, October 25.—There were five interments from fever up to five o'clock this afternoon.

BOSTON, October 25.—Bishop Eastburn and Dr. S. G. Howe and wife arrived in the China.

WILMINGTON, N. C., October 25.—The whites are taking more interest in the approaching election since the result of the election in Virginia is made known. Five days more are allowed for registration.

MOBILE, October 25.—There was but one interment from yellow fever to-day.

PHILADELPHIA, October 25.—Three deaths from cholera occurred on the Sassacus yesterday afternoon.

Late Mexican News.

HAVANA, October 25.—Advices to the 19th inst. are received from Mexico. Don Benito Juarez is elected President of the Republic beyond doubt, and Lerdo de Tejado President of the Supreme Court.

The political prisoners remaining in the hands of the Government have been disposed of as follows: Fifty-two sentenced to various terms of imprisonment, in most cases quite brief, and two hundred and fifty released. Trevino has been hurriedly dispatched to the Texan frontier.

American Minister Plumb had an audience with Juarez, at which he presented his credentials and was received as the accredited Ambassador of the United States.

The condition and whereabouts of General Maquese and other noted Imperialists, whom the Government officers are pursuing, is unknown. Generals Gonzales, Ortega and Patoni, have been put upon trial, but refuse to answer official questions, on the ground that they do not recognize the legality of the existing Government.

The insecurity of traveling in Mexico was never greater. The best men in the rural police force had been arraigned for trial for treason, was pardoned by the Government, and has since been elected to the Mexican Congress. Quanto Aguilar and Garsea Garcia, have been sentenced to four years imprisonment in the Penitentiary at Monterey.

From Nashville.

NASHVILLE, October 25.—The Legislature have enacted a law, making it punishable for common carriers to make discrimination on account of race or color. This places negroes on an equality with whites on Tennessee railroads, etc.

The Legislature have accepted an invitation to make a trip to Hickman, Kentucky, to-morrow.

B. F. Foster has entered a suit for twenty-five thousand dollars against E. H. and H. P. Douglass, who shot him last Sunday.

The trial of B. H. Payne for murder, commences to-morrow in the Criminal Court. He is the author of the pamphlet on the negro, attempting to prove that he is a beast and has no soul.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Very Interesting Proceedings.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Discussions on Important Topics.

THE PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY.

The second Annual Convention of the Allegheny County Sabbath School Teachers Institute commenced its session in Christ M. E. Church, Penn street, yesterday morning at half past ten o'clock. Nearly all the Sabbath Schools in the county were represented.

The President of the Institute, Rev. F. B. Snyder, read the scripture lesson from the fifth chapter of the gospel according to St. Matthew.

The audience then joined in singing the twenty-eighth hymn of the collection prepared for the service, commencing

"All hail the power of Jesus name,"

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Mcpherson, who invoked the blessing of God upon all associated in the convention, more especially upon the Sabbath School teachers, that they might labor more effectually in the cause of Christianity.

The congregation then sang the hymn—

"Come Holy Spirit."

Rev. W. R. Locke then made a prayer asking that the spirit of the Lord might be felt in the assembly, and that the cause of the Sabbath Schools might be blessed and great good come to this glorious institution, and that all the children of the church might grow up educated in Christian principles, and advance more than their fathers had done the great cause of the Messiah.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Rev. F. B. Snyder, President of the County Sabbath School Institute, then delivered the address of welcome, as follows:

My Christian Friends—The young men connected with the Christian Association have just closed one of the most interesting conventions I ever attended in connection with the blessed influences, and I trust productive of blessed results. The subjects brought before that convention were full of interest, and were discussed in a most Christianly spirit. I thank God that I had the privilege of being present with you while I regard that convention as one of vital importance, we have not been occasioned to discuss questions of equal magnitude and vitality. We have assemble to perfect plans which will result in high and holy purposes for the rising generation. It is a fact that the children of the church and the community at large form the most interesting class with which we come in contact. This field of labor is one of the most hopeful and pleasing presented to the Christian worker, and the harvest truly is ripening. The sympathy of the hearty inclined fingers of the Lamb are brought to bear around the little ones. It is a conceit is correct, is not the fact one of the most interesting and serious? Of the young who come to maturity—to the full stature of the perfect man and woman? Of professing Christianity, only about one in every five come to the church. Of the remaining four who are lost to the church on earth, but, alas! lost to the kingdom of God, and to enter into hell? Of those lost among the young, who are about crossing the line of mortal responsibility, is one of the most important duties. This is the most hopeful class, as I have already remarked, for Christian effort. In a true saying, but nevertheless true, that "the young are the hope of the church and the hope of the nation." These are the lambs and women to minister, who are soon to assume our places in the family, in the church and in the state. The vitality and intelligence of the young constitute the hope of the nation. Let those be educated and instructed in the principles of morality and religion, and some upon the throne of life with sanctified hearts, and the perpetuity of our institutions is secured

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

NOTWITHSTANDING the divisions among the Radicals in Virginia, there appears to be no doubt that the convention has been carried and a majority of anti-conservative delegates elected. This result is important, not only for Virginia, but for the effect it will exert on the States whose elections are to take place. It will, moreover, be a death blow to the scheme of Mr. JOHNSON, to prevent reconstruction under the policy of Congress.

THE Cleveland Leader, commenting on the statement made by the Toledo Blade that the friends of Senator WADE, now that he has no chance for the United States Senate, intend to place him in the House of Representatives, says:

"As a friend of the Senator, we advise him not to try this plan. If he attempts to contest a nomination against General Garfield, he will miss his mark. The people of the Nineteenth District appreciate the full any services, the distinguished ability, the commanding influence and the legislative experience of James A. Garfield too highly to exchange him for B. F. Ward."

The Leader is one of the most radical papers in the country, and a few days after the election said the course of Senator WADE was one of the principal causes of the Republican reverse in Ohio.

THE press and the people are lauding General GRANT for his wise and decided measures of economy in his department. We should be glad to see his example followed in all the departments, so far as this may be necessary or practicable. Mr. STANTON was reckoned prompt and judicious in his rapid reduction of expenses in the War Department, and, if General GRANT finds so much still to do, it is hardly probable that the application of his policy can be unsuitable or unnecessary in the other departments of the Government. Retrenchment of Government expenses is always agreeable to the people, and the assurance that such is the policy of the Government in expenditures, is like oil to machinery, and makes the payment of taxes an easy and cheerful office. We hope, too, that General GRANT's quiet example may extend its influence to Congress, when it assembles, and that the results may embrace the appropriation business and the matter of extra pay.

THE CONVENTION AND ITS FRUITS.

The COMMERCIAL has given a good deal of attention and a good deal of space in its columns for some days past to the proceedings of the convention of the Young Men's Christian Association held in this city during the week. Our readers at home and abroad have its proceedings before them by this means as fully as if they had been personally present. The conventionwas very large, and the discussions and devotions in which it engaged were attended by our own citizens and friends from the vicinity in numbers limited only by the capacity of the house, one of the largest in the city, in which it assembled.

We cannot but presume that good results will follow from the meeting, not only here but in many other places. The glow and impetus of benevolent feelings and purposes, received in the convention, may be expected to produce practical effects, multiplying and diffusing good influences from many centers. In the progress of the meeting much was said—perhaps, proportionally, too much—about operations in saloons and places of vicious and injurious resort. Efforts for reclamation in these fields of desolation and debasement cannot, of course, be objected to. But we imagine that they are not the most promising, for the efforts of the Christian and philanthropic laborer. There are hundreds of our youth and in large cities thousands, who may be brought under restraining and improving influences before they reach the immediate precincts of debasement and ruin.

We refer to the large numbers who are separated from their homes in their early youth, for the purpose of learning or prosecuting business in cities and large towns. Released from employment, evenings and Sundays, and without cheerful homes to resort to and without places in the churches, the tediousness of leisure and solitude urges them into the streets. Without society, they are impelled to seek it among themselves, and without experience or needful caution they often fall into associations that cannot but be injurious. This field of operations for the Christian Associations, we have recommended and again recommend to friendly notice and occupancy, and we do it without ignoring what has already been done in it. We have not the slightest doubt that in the class of whom we speak, there are steady, intelligent and well meaning youths in great numbers who may ultimately escape the dangers of this street traffic. But sympathy, mingling in safer society, a resort to reading rooms, and an attendance on the Sabbath services in the churches, would greatly increase the number. If by any means places of religious worship present a repellant aspect to these young men, some improvement in that respect might be judiciously coupled with direct and personal efforts for their benefit.

MR. CHASE.

A week or more ago the Cincinnati Commercial printed an article declaratory of the political views of Judge CHASE, which was conspicuously reproduced by the Tribune. We supposed at the time that the next thing would be a disavowal from Mr. CHASE, but in this we were mistaken. Time enough having elapsed and no disavowal appearing, the inference is that Mr. CHASE's views were correctly stated. The reader will be somewhat surprised to learn that the received idea of Mr. CHASE's radicalism is entirely erroneous. So far from being a radical he is a Conservative; if not a conservative, it would be difficult to find a word wherewith to characterize him. Indeed, the article in question says:

"On the first place, notwithstanding the great reputation as a radical that Judge Chase has, he is, in temperament and convictions, one of the most truly conservative men in the country."

In specification, the article goes on to say:

He was the first public man, after the close of the war and the disbandment of the army, to call the attention of the President to the only solid basis of reconstruction—that is, the enfranchisement of everybody—suffrage for all slaves, among the rest.

The notion that Congress should seize upon the President and thrust him, with blows and maledictions, out of office, has never been encouraged by Judge Chase. On the contrary, it was his opinion that no little mischief was done during the late political campaign by the wild threats of summary impeachment that were freely made.

Judge Chase is held responsible for the pronunciation of the Negro Suffrage issue in Ohio, during the last campaign. He never urged it. He recognized the fact that while in the Southern States, where the great body of loyalists were black, Negro suffrage was demanded by considerations of the public safety, no such demand was made in the North.

We may safely assume that these quotations reflect not only Mr. CHASE's sentiments but his estimate of public sentiments, as interpreted by the October elections. We will not, as some do, say that he is trimming his sails for the Presidential breeze, but we accept these declarations as the views of a statesman standing before the people, it is true as a candidate, but as one conceding that the time has come for honestly declaring his sentiments. If these sentiments have been modified by recent results—as quite likely they have—they will be none the less weighty with the people, accustomed as they are to place a high estimate on his qualifications as a statesman.

On the subject of banking and finance Mr. CHASE's views are equally interesting. We quote again:

Injurious imputations have been cast upon Judge Chase in connection with the national banks. To be sure he established them, and they who do not know that he did so, under a national pecuniary necessity, and that he accomplished the great object of establishing uniformity in currency and of giving to the country a national currency, do not deserve that it needed and that was of very great utility, are but ill-informed. The banks are to be dealt with now under different circumstances. No doubt the national banking system needs revision and adaptation to the changing situation of the country. We impute to Judge Chase no more than a decent irresponsible extreme would be, and that we would be the first to stigmatize as a perversion not to destroy it. On the greenback question, as it is called Mr. Chase has been held responsible for the administration of the Treasury Department since he left it. We may say on this point that he is not in favor of the payment of the national debt in greenbacks as a primary proposition, nor is he in favor of Secretary McCulloch's policy of forcing resumption of specie payments by reducing the volume of the currency. His policy would be to settle the question of the country, reduce the expense of the debt settlement, spread abroad with amnesty and quietness the most confident, peace and good will, and thus to invigorate the public credit and make the greenback as good as gold, when the question of payment of the national debt is at once covered as a concrete matter of indifference to any bondholder and taxpayer whether it is paid in gold or greenback.

THE SOUTH FOR IT.

The questions of minor importance or of local interest, which have introduced some confusion into the voting, this year, in the North, have no weight in the South, except as their influences on parties here may indirectly affect the great and only questions of reconstruction there. The only interest, for example, that the opposers of reconstruction felt in the negro suffrage question in Ohio, or in the liquor question in Philadelphia, sprang from the hope that the success of the Democrats might place some obstacle in the way of reconstruction. Hence their jubilation over the issue.

But those hopes and joys are but cadu-cous flowers, whose petals fall as soon as expanded. Besides the more than dubious character of the Democratic pretensions in the North, the vote of the Southern States on the great question is an absolute and withering frost to the hopes of the anti-reconstructionists. And we should not be surprised if the recent election in Virginia had extended its cooling powerto the Democrats of the North, as well. While the anti-reconstructionists have been waiting for the fancied reaction of the North to develop itself, the friends of the measure in the South have been actively pressing it forward. And from present appearances, it is probable that before the sky falls or the Democratic party gets control of the country, reconstruction will be quietly and happily effected on the basis of the present law.

THERE is a large falling off in the number of voters registered in New York and Brooklyn, the Democratic strongholds. The fact is disc ouraging to the Democratic leaders, who must either vote twice a good many who have registered or suffer a reverse.

A HEAVIER VERDICT.—In the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County, on Thursday, Jacob R. Goodman obtained a verdict for $9,150 against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. This suit was brought by the plaintiff for the recovery of damages for the loss of his wife, who was killed while crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad in a carriage, with her husband, near Landisville, about two years ago. At a former trial, $7,500 was allowed as damages. The new trial was granted at the instance of the railroad company.

SENATOR WILSON, at a political meeting held on Monday evening last, at Marlboro,' Mass., after reciting the predictions he had made at different times, and their more than fulfillment, then stated that General Grant would be elected President by the votes of not less than thirty States, and would be supported by a two-thirds majority of both Houses of Congress. The ever loyal white men, the repentant rebels, and the six hundred thousand enfranchised colored men are to reconstruct the Southern States, and send a majority of Republican Senators and Representatives to Washington.

About Telegraphs.

A New York letter says: On Thursday the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph commenced operating, opening their line to Albany at a reduced rate of charges, which as usual was followed by the Western Union by a still further reduction. The stock of the Western Union experienced another decline and has since been quoted at from 33½ to 34. The policy pursued by the Western Union Company and the rapid extension of competing lines is unfavorable to the stock of that company, and a still further reduction in quotations is probable at an early day. The lines of the Atlantic and Pacific Company will be opened to Buffalo this week and the contractor promises to have them working to Cleveland this fall. The new Co operative Telegraph Company is receiving encouragement, and its originators are confident from the responses to their appeals already received of such support from the telegraph profession and the public as will insure its success and make it as it is intended to be, the great competing organization of the country—co-extensive with its territory and superior in construction, rights of way and reliability and correctness in the transaction of business to any previous system of telegraph in the United States.

THE PRESIDENCY.

The American Citizen, published in Butler, Pa., has placed at the head of its columns the name of General Grant for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1868, and says:

"In this act, we merely give expression to the deep and settled sentiment of the Republican party, and not only of the Republican party, but it is the unquestioned sentiment of a united majority of the Democratic party. He has the confidence of the masses of the American people and will receive their support."

The Waynesburg, Greene County, Pa., Republican, in alluding to Grant's spontaneous nomination says it is "certain that he will be the next President of the United States. The people demand it, and the people command him champion, and woe be to the politicians that enter the list against him."

The Gettysburg Sentinel says: "Under the influence of the temporary check sustained by the Republican party at the recent elections, the country seems to be turning towards the great soldier, who during the war led our armies to victory—assured that he would have saved the nation in 1864, will preserve it from rebel rule in 1868."

PERSONAL.

—The Roman Catholic paper, the Union, gives a curious version of the reasons which induced Rattazzi to have Garibaldi arrested. The minister, says that paper, was perfectly aware that in laying hands on Garibaldi the movement against Rome would not be prevented. Besides this, Rattazzi, aware of the dangers of the enterprise, wished to save the General and hinder risking his life.

—Lord Brougham has written a sort of "death-bed legacy" to his countrymen, in which he expresses the deep conviction that the most important thing for the future welfare of the kingdom is the suppression of "electoral corruption."

—James Solomon, full blooded negro, intends to matriculate at the University of London and has passed the preliminary examinations. He is the son of a native Wesleyan minister on the Gold Coast, and when he went to England had had no teaching but what he received in a native school.

—Mrs. Lincoln's brothers, as is known, were in the Confederate army. The youngest of them started in April, 1861, from New Orleans as a private in the Chasseurs a Pied, and being discharged for sickness at Richmond, in October of the same year returned to his home; but, though still suffering in health, he left a wife and two babies to join the Crescent regiment, in response to Beauregard's calls, and fell at Shiloh. Another, Captain David Todd, started with Colonel Tom Taylor, of the First Kentucky Volunteers, and was also killed towards the end of the war. And third, Dr. Todd served throughout as a distinguished surgeon.

—Fred. Douglass, in a recent lecture, said: If the church in this country could heap up the chains and whips and hellish instruments of slavery, and point to them as the monument of its labors, it would be worth more than all the tracts and expurgated tracts issued by the American Tract Society.

—It is a somewhat curious fact that the author of the bankrupt bill, the Hon. Thomas Jenckes, of Rhode Island, was one of the first applicants for its benefits in his State. The failure is disastrous and said to be heavy.

—Miss Nelly Marshall (daughter of General Humphrey Marshall, of Kentucky,) is to be married, shortly, to an Englishman, Lord Wm. Musgrove, and will sail immediately for England.

—It was Kelley who planned the escape of Stephens from Richmond prison, at Dublin. It is said that, after the famous escape, the British Government offered him $25,000 to give up the Head Centre. "Any rise on the last bid?" said Kelley. "Not a penny more." "Then, as a business man, I consider that I can make more out of Stephens by saving him," was the answer, and a week after the Head Center was spirited out of an Irish port, and made his way to America.

—Some of the mischievous newspaper reporters are said to have obtained from Mrs. Lincoln a batch of letters or copies of letters, which she had received from sundry prominent politicians, while an occupant of the Presidential Mansion, and these it is probable, will be put in print, to the unspeakable disgust of the parties whose signatures are affixed to them. The letters are said to be peculiarly rich—the Wakeman letter being nothing in comparison.

—The Springfield Republican repeats the gossip about the separation of Senator Sumner and his wife, within the year of their marriage, substantially as it has appeared in the papers, and adds: "But we are sure there is nothing in all the circumstance of this sad termination to what promised to be a most fortunate and happy relation for our distinguished Senator, to abate the public respect for him as a statesman or the deep affection of his multitude of friends for him as a man."

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

It is reported that the Government of the New Dominion has recently negotiated a railway improvement loan in London, which has been guaranteed by the home Government in accordance with the act consolidating the Dominion. The amount is £3,500,000 sterling, or about $17,500,000 in our currency, and the Bank of Montreal, as the fiscal agent of the new Government, is said to be already drawing through its New York agent against the loan.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in New York, is out in a warning to the proprietors of cars, trucks, wagons, &c., to cease to impose heavier burdens upon their horses than they can comfortably bear. The number of horses must be increased, or the loads they are compelled to draw must be diminished. In default of compliance, the law will be rigidly enforced.

A Dublin correspondent of the London Times says that at the recent horse fair at Ballinasloe, agents of the French and other continental governments were present, and eagerly bought up, at high prices, every stranger that was offered, of even moderately good qualities.

A correspondent at Constantinople writes that the American missionaries, who have for years past done a great deal for the cause of education among the Copts, have recently received a rude check from the Coptic Patriarch. During a recent tour in Upper Egypt his eminence employed his time chiefly in persecuting all the native Christians who accepted the aid of the missionaries, causing their children to be beaten and withdrawn from the schools, and burning all the Bibles and other religious books he could lay hands on. The local Mussulman authorities, instead of interfering to protect their subjects, rather countenanced the proceedings.

An extraordinary suicide of four persons recently took place in Veraponin, France. An innkeeper in easy circumstances, named Thinot, with his wife and two children, aged six years and seven and a half, were found three mornings back lying together on a bed suffocated by four pans of charcoal which they had lighted in the room. On the table was a will in the handwriting of the wife, leaving the half of their fortune to the hospital of Solssons and the remainder to two nieces, and stating that they had committed the act after mature reflection, because the husband was afflicted with an incurable pulmonary disease.

The number of Protestant churches in Cleveland is forty-three, and the average attendance about 15,000. The number of Romanist churches is seven, with an average attendance of different persons at some one of the services on each Sabbath of 12,000. The number of Jewish synagogues is two, with an average attendance of 550.

Barnum's gorilla is said to be a Hoosier in gorilla's skin. He is said to have recognized his old acquaintance and made an appointment for the evening, and that was the way the humbug was exposed. So says the New York News.

A large and important railroad meeting was held at Indianapolis, Monday, several of the leading roads being represented, among others the Bellefontaine, the Indianapolis and Cincinnati, the Lake Shore, and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago. A total reorganization of the road now known as the Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis, which is to form a part of the Indianapolis and St. Louis Railroad, was completed.

The Daniel Webster place at Franklin, N. H., was sold at auction recently. The heirs of the late Rufus L. Tay bid off the building and home farm of two hundred acres for $15,400. The wood lot was bought by James Taylor of Franklin.

A new Opera House has been projected in Detroit with a fair prospect of succeeding.

Allegheny Council Proceedings.

A press of matter prevented the publication of the report of the proceedings of Allegheny Councils, prepared for yesterday's paper. The following are the principal items of business transacted:

FIRE COMPANY IN THE SIXTH WARD.

Mr. Dill presented a petition from the citizens of the Sixth ward, asking for a fire organization in said ward. The petition stated that a company had been organized, and all that was necessary was for the city to furnish the necessary apparatus. The petition was referred to the Committee on Fire Engines and Hose, with instructions to report at next meeting.

FRIENDSHIP HOSE COMPANY.

Mr. Reed, from the Committee on Engines, presented the report of the Committee, recommending the appropriation of $850, to the Friendship Engine House, the cost of said improvements not to exceed $850. The report was accepted and the resolution read three times and finally passed.

WATER PIPE.

Mr. Dill offered a resolution providing for the laying of a water pipe on Sedgwick street, from Juniata to Franklin streets. Read three times and adopted.

PASSENGER RAILWAY EXTENSION.

Mr. Moul presented the report of the Committee on Surveys and Railways, together with an ordinance granting the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company the right to extend their railway along Ohio avenue, from the corner of Bidwell street and said avenue to Allegheny avenue, and thence down said Allegheny avenue to Western Penitentiary. The report was accepted, and the ordinance read three times and finally passed.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. Brown presented the report of the Committee on Streets, recommending the grading and paving of Tanner alley and the grading of Taggart street, together with ordinances authorizing the improvement. The report was accepted and the ordinances read three times and passed.

Mr. Brown presented a communication from the City Engineer, in reference to the Canal street sewer, notifying Councils that it had been found impossible to secure persons willing to undertake the assessment of damages for said improvement. The matter was discussed at some length, and resulted in the appointment of Messrs G. Wallich and R. R. Ray as a Board of Viewers to make satisfactory arrangements in regard to said assessments.

The New British Minister.

It is said to be now definitely fixed that Mr. Thornton, C. B., late Minister to Rio, is to come to Washington, and that his appointment has received the sanction of Queen Victoria. Mr. Thornton's ability as a diplomatist is said to have been thoroughly tested in the missions which he has successively discharged in Turkey, the Danubian Principalities and Brazil. His services extend over a long series of years, and it is said that he has succeeded in gaining not only the confidence of the Foreign Office of England, but the respect and esteem of the different Governments to which he had been accredited. Mr. Thornton has but recently been appointed to the mission at Lisbon, but has not yet gone there, and his destination is now changed. The English papers seem to agree that the selection does honor to Lord Stanley's judgment, and that he is the right man in the right place. One of our English cotemporaries has a rumor that Mr. Thornton will be created a Baronet before he takes charge of the new duties.

The Royal Plate.

The London Sun gives prominence to the following statement: It appears that the gold and silver plate at Windsor Castle, for the use of her Majesty and the court, weighs nearly thirty tons, and that its value may be roughly estimated at £3,000,000. It is secured in stone chambers with vaulted ceilings, which form part of the original buildings, and are thoroughly proof against burglars. Among the plate is a single dish, not or silver gilt, but of solid gold, made for the late King of Oude, and representing all the orders, both domestic and foreign, which that sovereign wore, or was entitled to wear; it is estimated at £5,000. Grand and magnificent as the assortment of plate is, our readers will be astonished to hear that very little of it indeed, is old or curious, most of the pieces used by former sovereigns having been melted down and remodeled by George IV.; very much of it, consequently, is tawdry and rococo, as might naturally be expected from the author of the Pavilion of Brighton.

Rode the six hundred,

Out larger, by hundreds multiplied into millions, flashing their merits, backed by testimonials from Tennyson's poem, is the great cavalcade of unsolicited and unbought testimonials to the virtues that dwell, hugging that fearful disease FEVER AND AGUE, which by the use of

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS,

They might, each one, be forever relieved from it, and their physical organization become thoroughly renovated, and the whole system restored to a condition of the stomach. The legitimate result of using is to ward off Fever and Ague when it is likely to make its appearance, and to cure confirmed cases where it has already gained a foothold. It makes no matter how long or how severe the disease has suffered from it, nor how virulent the disease itself may be, we have prepared to furnish indubitable evidence that

Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters

Will cure it. It is in vitrifiable from the very nature of its ingredients, from the first to the last bottle sold. Send to your nearest Druggist for these Bitters, and if he has not sold them,

THE DUPLEX COLLAR.

Licensed by Union Paper Collar Co., of N. Y.

This Collar is made of the best pure white linen stock, full-sized and finished in the best manner. The linen, water proofed by an entirely new process, is then subjected to the action of a powerful press on new patented machinery, which imparts a beauty of form and finish, unknown to other Collars in Byron and Gothic styles the WATER LINE COLLAR, and the PLUS ULTRA COLLAR, plain—unequalled in whiteness, texture and strength.

THE DUPLEX CUFF.

600,000 PAIRS ORDERED WEEKLY.

This Cuff is made under the patent of the Ne Plus Ultra Collar Company, with the NEW BUTTON HOLE, patented June 18, 1866, fixed in no other Cuff, which enables the wearer to put in or take out the Cuff instantly, without tearing or injuring the Cuff or button hole. Heavy pure white stock. Imitation of linen, water-proof. We also manufacture the "Water Line Cuff," heavy enameled, corresponding with the Collar, of that name. Across the Sierra Nevadas.

THE

Central Pacific Railroad,

THE WESTERN HALF OF THE

Great National Trunk Line

Across the Continent,

Being constructed with the AID AND SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, is destined to be one of the most important line of communication in the world, as it is the sole link between the Pacific coast and the Great Eastern Basin, over which the immense Overland travel must pass, and the Principal Portion of the Main Stem Line between the Two Oceans.

Its line extends from Sacramento, on the tidal waters of the Pacific navigable to the largest and most populous parts of California, Nevada and Utah, and connecting with the Union Pacific in the Far West, and will meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountains. About 100 miles are now built, equipped and in successful operation on the Pacific side of the Sierra Nevada. Within a few days 35 miles, now graded, will be added, and the track carried entirely across the mountains in time to open the whole line entirely, unless further progress will be easy and rapid. Iron and timber for the first 100 miles of road, and 10,000 men are employed in the construction.

The local business upon the completed portion surpasses the most sanguine expectations. The figures for the quarter ending August 31, are as follows in GOLD:

Or at the rate of two millions per annum, which is more than three-fourths are net profit on less than 140 miles worked with the aid of the actual, regular mails, trade of the road, with its terminus in the Pacific Territories, and with the national line of government transportation, and is exclusive of the business originating from the Overland travel, which will surely have an immense increase when the United States will have invested in the completion of 865 miles $48,000 in bonds, and a subsidy of $1,920,000 per mile—not including an absolute grant of 10,000,000 Acres of the Public Lands. By becoming a joint interest holder in this road you secure a large bonus, giving its first lien in favor of the First Mortgage Bondholders, and the Government, first, in the profits of the co-operation of private capitalists, and has carefully guarded every interest against all ordinary contingencies.

The Company offer for sale, through us, their

First Mortgage Thirty Year Six Per Cent. Coupon Bonds,

Principal and Interest payable in Gold Coin, in New York city. They are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, and are offered for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1 added, in currency, at which rate they yield nearly Nine per Cent. upon the Investment.

These Bonds, authorized by Act of Congress, are issued only as the work progresses, and to the same amount only as the Bonds granted by the first lien upon a completed, equipped and productive railroad, in which the earnings are largely in excess of the interest, both subscriptions, donations, surplus earnings, &c., and a large cash capital, are pledged to protect the amount of First Mortgage Bonds which can be issued upon it.

The Central Pacific First Mortgage Bonds have all the safeguards and restrictions which mark the Pacific Railroad Act of Congress, and have in addition several others, which render them the most secure of railroad bonds.

Second—Besides the superior claim upon altogether the most vital and valuable portion of the through line.

Second—Besides the fullest benefit of the Government subsidy, (which is a subordinate lien,) the local traffic of the richest agricultural, mining and commercial country in the world.

Third—Fully half the whole cost of grading 800 miles across one of San Francisco is concentrated in the first 40 miles, and completed.

Fourth—A large business already yielding three-quarters of a million per annum, and with the most generous rates payable in coin.

Fifth—Individual liability as well as the Interest of its Bonds being payable in coin, upon a legally binding contract.

Having carefully investigated the resources, and fully satisfied ourselves of the correctness of the company's affairs, we cordially recommend these Bonds as a safe and profitable investment for capitalists and others, as an eminently sound, reliable and remunerative form of permanent investment.

CITY MATTERS.

OUT OF SERVICE.—The Duquesne Fire Company having disposed of their steamer, is now out of service.

MINERS STRIKE.—The miners in the employ of N. J. Bigley, Sr. & Co. coal works at Aliquippa, on the Ohio river, below, have gone on a "strike" for four cents per bushel.

THE GREAT RACE TO-DAY at Oakland Park, "Magoogin," "Gold Water Billy," and "Brown George," with running mate. The contest between these noted horses will positively come off at 2 o'clock, P. M.

THE BUST OF THE LATE BISHOP IVES.—P. C. Reimers, sculptor, of this city, on Thursday received in New York, the commission to make the portrait bust of the late Bishop Ives, whose death in New York was recorded a week or two since.

DOMESTIC GOODS AT AUCTION.—The attention of the retail trade in domestic cotton and woolen goods, is directed to the sale to take place at John H. Mayer & Co.'s auction house, Market street, Philadelphia. This will be one of the most important sales of the season, and rare bargains will be obtained.

TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY.—Sheriff Cluley yesterday conveyed to the Western Penitentiary, in Allegheny City, Robert Graham and George Nowlett, both convicted of larceny, and the former sentenced to two years and the latter to one year and six months imprisonment.

OBITUARY.—Mr. James Hammett, Jr., a most worthy young man, died yesterday morning at his residence in Birmingham, after a confinement of about a fortnight. the Methodist Camp Meeting at McKeesport a few months since. The deceased was a member of the "Drake" Union, and was a most estimable, upright and consistent man. He leaves a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn his loss.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—At the matinee this afternoon, the sensation drama "East Lynne" will be performed. In the evening, Mr. Chanfrau will give his admirable impersonation of "Sam" for the fifth time. It is really funny. Chanfrau has attracted excellent audiences during the week, and he deserved them.

DAN RICE'S CIRCUS will exhibit to-day in Birmingham, and Monday in Monongahela City.

Soiree Musicale.

The sale of reserved seats for the concert, to be given at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, October 30th and 31st, by Miss Caroline McCaffrey, the eminent contralto, of Philadelphia, will commence at McCoy's music store, No. 81 Wood street, on Monday, 28th inst., at nine o'clock A. M., and, as there will be no extra charge, we have no doubt the demand for seats will be very great. Miss McCaffrey's fame as a vocalist would draw full houses; but when we consider the fact that she will be assisted by artistes such as her sister Helen, the sweet soprano; Madame Henrietta Behrens, the favorite soprano of Philadelphia; Mr. Theodore Habelman, the celebrated tenor, late of the German Opera Troupe; Mr. J. Benitz, the favorite basso of our own city, and Mr. S. Behrens, late of the Strakosch Concert Troupe, we expect to see the Academy crowded both evenings to its utmost capacity.

THE LATEST STYLES FOR FALL AND WINTER, direct from London, Paris, London and New York, at Spence's Fashionable Cloak and Mantilla Emporium, No. 73 Market street.

Why Will Ye Die?

Since the science of medicine was first introduced it never gave to the world a remedy for the ills peculiar to the present season of the year, possessing such wonderful virtues as Mishler's celebrated Herb Bitters. The discovery of this medicine has conferred untold and incalculable blessings upon mankind; it has restored the health of thousands upon thousands in every land; it has given life and reinvigorated and strengthened the constitutions of an army of sufferers, and saved from death itself the victims of disease who have fortunately for themselves fallen timely upon the marvelous curative powers. Mishler's celebrated Herb Bitters not only cures but it likewise prevents general debility, dyspepsia, acidity of the stomach, scrofula, liver complaint, etc., and imparts the most delightful tone to the stomach. It purifies the blood, and leaves the system entirely restored to its original healthy condition. As a tonic it is recommended on the highest medical endorsement from physicians who are constantly using Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters in their daily practice, and who have repeatedly endorsed the Bitters over their own signatures. Dr. Mishler has received thousands of testimonials which were given voluntarily in favor of his marvellous Bitters. No family should be without Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters; every sick room in the land ought to be supplied with it; every professional man, merchant, banker, clerk, mechanic and laborer will longthen life by useing Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters. See advertisement in another column of Messrs. Fahnestock & Holton, Managers of Branch House, No. 26 Market street.

FOR A STYLISH AND ELEGANT fall or winter garment the ladies all go to Spence's Fashionable Cloak and Mantilla Emporium, No. 73 Market street.

The Oregon Brewery.

Messrs. Pier, Daunals & Company, proprietors of the extensive Oregon Brewery, on Stevenson street, near Pennsylvania avenue, are manufacturing the finest cream ales we ever had the satisfaction to give a trial, and we unhesitatingly pronounce it a rare and invaluable beverage, without a superior. This ale is not the only article of merit that eminates from the Oregon Brewery. The stock and common ales, the porters, etc., are far in advance of what are generally known in these days be such names, and one of the strongest endorsements which could be given in their favor is the fact that nearly every one of the principal Hotels, Restaurants, and hundreds of private citizens in this part of the State patronize Messrs. Pier, Daunals & Co., to the exclusion of all other brewers. Give their ales a trial. Nothing like them in the American market, pronounced equal to the best English ales.

CHRONIC CATARRH,

AND

Diseases of the Throat and Chest Cured.

Mr. John Morrison, one of our late worthy grand jurymen, makes the following statement of his speedy recovery from a disease of the head and chest from which he had nearly perished:

I cheerfully make known to the public the speedy manner in which I have recovered from my critical state of health, under the old method of Dr. Aborn, at No. 134 Smithfield street. I have been afflicted for several years with catarrh of the head, which at last affected my throat, and soon thereafter my lungs became involved. And also this filthy head accumulation, gravitating downwards, destroyed the functions of my stomach and liver. I was so dyspeptic, and my liver so deranged, that what little food I did eat afforded so little nourishment to the system, that I soon became very much reduced in flesh. I was perfectly miserable. Life afforded no enjoyment. What enjoyment can one find who is afflicted as I was? I have been under the treatment of Dr. Aborn but three weeks, and the remarkable change which has taken place in the character of my disease, in so short a time, is almost incredible. My appetite is fully restored to its former power; I have gained many pounds in weight and am still gaining, and am once more on the road to health, as the result of his peculiar treatment.

The New Theory for Diseases of the Air Passages.

A WORD FROM AN OLD SCHOOL PHYSICIAN AS TO ITS MERIT.

There are many systems of medicine by which we attempt to heal the human body and make it free of disease, ranging from the science of Allopathy down to that of Hydropathy. How far they have succeeded time has abundantly shown, by the number of their failures, as well as by the number and nature of their cures.

In the cure of Pulmonary disease, Dr. Aborn has stepped out of the old beaten track, and adopted a system so simple, direct and natural, as to recommend itself to all who are suffering with catarrh and disease of the lungs, of a character defying cure by any of the old methods of treatment.

Although from childhood I have been raised and also went through a regular course and graduated as an Allopatist, yet a strict love of what is right and just, as well as personal benefit received by the new system of atomization teaches me to bear some testimony to its merits for the benefit of suffering humanity.

HON. F. D. KINNEAR, Attorney-at-law, a resident of Franklin, Pa., suffered from defective hearing, buzzing noises in the head, and discharge from the ears, for nearly twenty-five years; acknowledges his recovery to the skill of Dr. Aborn.

Further Home Testimony—Another Testimonial from W. Wagner, Esq., Cashier of the Morgantown, W. Va., National Bank.

W. Wagner, Esq., Cashier of the Morgantown, West Virginia, National Bank, was for nearly five years painfully afflicted with a disease in his head producing frequent copious discharges from his ears, and which almost totally destroyed his hearing. He was induced to leave himself under the skillful treatment of Dr. E. S. Aborn, (No. 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.,) who speedily effected a permanent cure. Mr. Wagner publicly acknowledged Dr. Aborn's great success under date of November, 1866, in which he says: "I have no hesitation in saying that under the treatment I have not only been relieved of my intense suffering, but that I am permanently and satisfactorily cured." The following additional letter has just been received from Mr. Wagner:

MORGANTOWN, W. VA., June 24th, 1867.

Dr. E. S. Aborn, No. 134 Smithfield Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

DEAR SIR:—I am very happy to inform you that the treatment you gave me in November last, with the medicine you sent me home, and afterwards sent to me from Meadville, has entirely cured my head, and relieved me from deafness, and all those unpleasant sensations from which I suffered when I called at your office, and that my hearing is perfectly restored. When I was in Pittsburgh a short time since, and in conversation with several friends, I told them of my visit to you in November last, and the successful treatment I received at your hands. Many persons in my own immediate neighborhood who have noticed the restoration of my hearing, will no doubt call upon you. The gentleman who was suffering with his eyes in this place, about whom I wrote to you, went to Pittsburgh shortly after you left there, and then to Weston, in this State, where he is now engaged in business. I am told that he lost the use of his eye entirely, and that recently he had the eye ball taken out by some surgeon from Buffalo, who happened to be at Weston. I regret very much that he did not get to Pittsburgh before he left there, as my confidence in your superior skill gives me great assurance that you would have saved his sight. The old gentleman who is suffering from deafness has been to Pittsburgh since you left for the purpose of calling upon you, and regretted exceedingly that he had delayed his visit so long. I shall do myself the honor to call upon you soon, and personally express to you the deep gratitude I feel towards you for the permanent cure which you have effected in my case.

Yours, very truly,
W. WAGNER.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

TESTIMONIAL

FROM

Hon. M. C. Beebe,

OF

Pleasantville, Crawford Co., Pa.

Dr. Aborn, No. 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

DEAR SIR—Some five years ago my son Willie commenced showing symptoms of catarrh of the head, which continued to grow worse until his system was so debilitated as to preclude an active enjoyment of the sports of childhood or pursue any system of study, or attend at school, and at times was entirely prostrated with lingering fever—some times, for weeks together, with a constant manifestation of the symptoms of the disease, such as a constant hacking, nostril discharges, &c., irritation of the throat, &c., causing nausea. All the usual appliances and treatment of physicians, etc., had failed to afford relief until you were applied to during your professional visit at Titusville last winter, when he began to improve immediately after commencing your treatment, and continued to improve until now he enjoys a good state of health, and is able to participate in the active sports of childhood with zest, as well as pursue his studies without interruption. I have omitted to make this statement heretofore, as I wished to be satisfied that the relief was permanent.

Respectfully yours,
M. C. BEEBE.

Then and Now—The Un-recalled.

MESSRS. EDITORS—In answer to the allegations contained in Mr. Cochran's late card, in which he states that the letter given me was the sole wrong impressions of our school, and that he had privately recalled the same, we beg leave to make the following statement of the manner in which it was obtained, also some circumstances connected with Mr. Cochran's recalling tendencies:

Some time since, unbidden, unsolicited, and very unexpectedly, a gentleman whom we had been in the habit of meeting upon the street for several years, but who for some cause unknown to us, persistently refused to notice or speak to us, called at our office one evening, and, after introducing himself as Mr. C. C. Cochran, late a teacher in Duff's College, said that he had called for the purpose of making an explanation of his mysterious conduct, and apologizing for his seeming want of courtesy, which he did by stating that such was the nature of his late engagement, that had he been detected by his employers, or by any of his family, as holding intercourse with, or in any wise recognizing any one connected with the Iron City College, his position would have been forfeited and he discharged. But that, inasmuch as he had been able to screen his character of my disease, and resolved to submit to this degradation no longer; was determined to assert his manhood, and had thrown up his situation as teacher in said school. He then hoped, he said, that we would overlook his past offenses and consider and treat him as a man, inasmuch as he had hitherto acted not from choice but from restraint, his employer imposing this as one of the conditions upon which his services were to be retained. Accepting his explanation and apology as satisfactory, he expressed himself extremely gratified, and thereafter became, not only a frequent visitor at the Iron City College, but professedly one of its warmest and most devoted friends; so much so that we were repeatedly urged to refer persons desiring information concerning the different colleges to him. And, as a further evidence of the genuineness of his repentance and the sincerity of his friendship, he kindly furnished us with the card which he now says he privately (?) recalled.

In answer to this, we would state that the only intimation, either public or private, we ever had of Mr. C.'s change of opinion was that suggested by his late re-engagement with the party whom he had so bitterly accused of tyrannizing over his liberties and degrading his manhood. And in order to test the matter we saw him, and he had sold his self to his former alleged oppressor, we decided to publish his card, which never before had appeared in the newspapers. The result is known, as well as his personal benefit received by the new system of atomization teaches me to bear some testimony to its merits for the benefit of suffering humanity.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY EVENING, October 25, 1867.

There was no essential change in the local money market to-day. The demand continues very pressing, and beyond the ability of the discount houses to supply. The open market is well supplied with offerings, but it is very difficult to place even the best named paper under five and eighteen per cent.

—The advancing tendency that was manifested yesterday in Governments was checked by a general disposition to realize. The quotations of Messrs. McVay & Co., and James T. Brady & Co., show better figures for the 7-30 series, but the improvement is slight.

—Gold is quiet and the premium lower. The market is largely oversold in anticipation of the November interest on the public debt, and as gold can be loaned at 1-16@¼ per cent. per day in the New York market, holders are naturally in no haste to sell. This is the chief influence at present tending to support the market. Apart from this the pacific aspect of affairs in Italy and the firmness of bonds in Europe have a tendency to weaken the price. In this evenly balanced condition of the market there is little disposition to speculate.

—The stock market has been exelted and more active. The rather easier aspect of money has encouraged the "bull" operators to extend their operations beyond the strictly clique stocks, and the transactions in Western stocks are larger than for some days past. The market, however, appears to lack the healthy elements of support. The condition of money is against a permanent improvement, and only a temporary one is looked for. Prices are rather as respects the speculative interest than before; and in this condition of the market there is naturally an increase in the ranks of "bear" operators.

Lloyd, Huff & Co. This is something the citizens of Westmoreland county have long needed, and will no doubt be a welcome institution in their midst. The firm of Messrs. Lloyd & Co., is one of the oldest and most reliable banking firms in this part of the State, and we congratulate the citizens there in having secured the convenience of a sound institution.

—A special telegram says that a run commenced on the Royal Canadian Bank this morning and continued with great activity till about noon. The call for gold being promptly responded to, the excitement has gradually subsided. The safety of the Bank, as to its ability to meet all demands, the bank kept open a considerable time after the usual hour for closing. Other banks paid gold for Royal Canadian Bank notes.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, }
FRIDAY EVENING, October 25, 1867. }

Pig Iron and Blooms.

The market for raw irons continues steady. Choice brands are in active demand, and the limited stock in the production of that description, is at present scarcely equal to consumption, prices are firmly maintained. Common and inferior grades are in less demand, and prices are weak. Forges, rolling mills generally, are held less firmly. In some instances slight concessions have been made to effect sales. In Founder irons the supply continues light, the demand is also light at previously quoted rates.

We quote the following rates of the various descriptions: We quote bituminous coal smelted from Lake Superior ores, delivered at furnace, for Charcoal, 100 tons. Total—2,900 tons against 2,200 tons for the previous week, showing an increase this week of 700 tons. Stock on hand, 1,500 tons.

Iron Bars and Nails.

Prices are unchanged from those reported during the past three weeks, but there is a little more doing this week. Should navigation on the Ohio close, a renewed trade would no doubt brighten up considerably, notwithstanding the lateness of the season. Our storehouses are full of all kinds of iron.

Hardwares.

The market continues dull, and prices unchanged. Stoves are only in moderate stock, and prices about the same as last season.

Copper, Steel and Tin.

No change in prices of copper since our last excepting in sheathing, 14x48, which now commands from 30 to 31c instead of 30c. The trade in tin plates, etc., is only moderate, and the quotations given in prices in bar tin which is now quoted at 39@40c ₱ lb instead of 40c. The New York Shipping List says: There is scarcely any inquiry for pig, and the tendency of the market is rather in buyers' favor: we have only to notice 200 pigs Straits and Malacca, in lots, at 25½@25¾c; English, nominally, 23½c; and Banca, 26@
